

Leadership is an action.
Specifically: going first.

02

Whoever goes first is leading in that moment. That can happen before anyone gives them a title.

Going first means being willing to try. The room might not follow. What you initiate might not land.

04

In my TEDx talk, I described what happens when we send someone ahead to take the blows. We turn leaders into shields.

We ask them to take the first step while reserving our right to criticize. Look at the responsibility we're keeping for ourselves.

Choose where to start.

Use the Culture Scorecard.

Comment

SCORECARD

Save this for your next team conversation.

